Highlights

BUENOS AIRES: Regarded as South Americas most stylish and sophisticated cities. Home of the Tango has fascinating architecture ranging from Spanish Colonial to ultra modern plus the La Boca area which has wonderfully multi-coloured houses. Tigre River delta, has interesting fishing villages, jungle animal and bird life.

IGUAZU: Eleanor Roosevelt remarked "poor Niagara" on seeing Iguazu Falls which are four times wider than Niagara. The falls are located on the Argentine/Brazil/Paraguay border, are the main attraction but the surrounding park is home to: jaguars, tapurs, capuchin monkeys and many species of birds.

USHUAIA: The Worlds most southerly city. Founded by missionaries, then populated by fishermen and more recently a penal colony. Now, the original waterfront buildings have been restored as tourism is now the main driver of the economy.

TIERRA del FUEGO: The forested mountainous park contain many bird species including the majestic condor. Beavers are also common.

See separate box on the MV Cruceros Australia

PAINE NATIONAL PARK: Magnificent park featuring snow clad granite peaks, 15 of which are over 2000 metres, glaciers, water falls and rivers. (Some walking).

PERITO MORENO GLACIER: This glacier holds the planet's third largest reserve of fresh water is one of very few glaciers which is still growing.

BARILOCHE: Argentina's alpine resort, situated on lake Nahuel Huari in the Andean Lakes District. A beautiful spot, surrounded by mountains.

PUERTO VARAS: Situated on Lake Llanquihue, the charming town offers views snow covered volcanoes.

SANTIAGO: The city is surrounded by the Andes, unfortunately the splendid views are sometimes obscured by smog. Santiago has some fine Spanish era buildings and a thriving café culture. We will visit the pretty wine producing valleys not far from the city.

EASTER ISLAND:

(Rapa Nui) Windswept Polinesia Island located 3700 km off the coast is Rapa Nui. Famous for its mysterious Moai, giant human statues which stare endlessly out to sea.
